

THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION

“La Enología es una pasión, una forma de vivir”

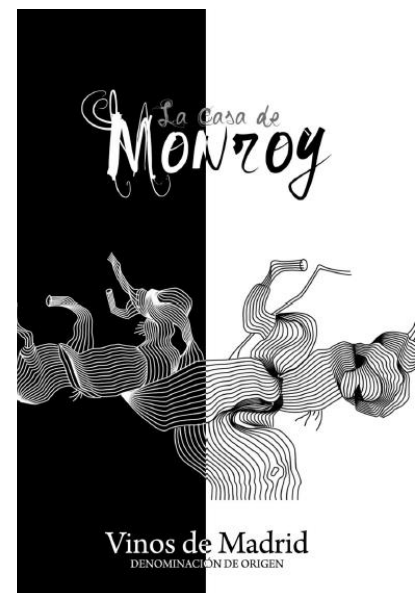

酿酒是一种激情，一种生活方式

Gonzalo Lozano Gurumeta 贡萨洛

A limited-production boutique winery with a 130-year history and its fourth generation of Gonzalo, who holds a doctorate from the University of La Rioja, uses the most traditional yet scientific brewing methods to brew unique classic Spanish wine. Every vine in the vineyard and every bottle of wine is cultivated and brewed by him. He has loved everything about wine since he was a child. He is one of the few winemakers with a doctorate degree and a wine consultant employed by various wineries. Above all, his dedication and passion for making a good wine is rare find. You can feel his enthusiasm and touched from drinking Monroy wine

In the past Monroy wines were only available in local high-end restaurants in Spain, but now it has just been officially introduced to China.

WINERY AND WINE

Monroy Winery represents the continuation of more than four generations of a family that has been collecting grapes and making wine since 1886. The wines produced are the crystallization of high-quality wines from old vines

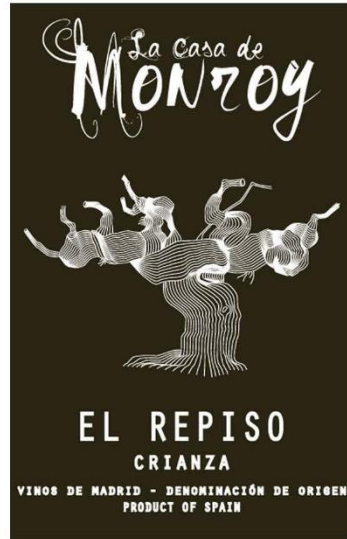

The soil in this area is a sandy silica, which is used for dry farming. The winery covers an area of 36 hectares, 650 meters above sea level, and harvests 3,500 kilograms of grapes per hectare, providing high-quality grapes for the Madrid region. The main grape varieties are Tempranillo, Grenache and Cabernet Sauvignon

Armed with his Doctor degree, the winemaker Gonzalo has his own set of scientific and traditional winemaking techniques. The main product is fine boutique wine in limited production
